Events Of A New Horizon

Prologue group #2 had a blast out on the town at the Hickory Crawdads Stadium. They even won free tickets to the movies.

Lenoir-Rhyne College sponsors many events throughout the academic year. From Homecoming in the fall to Graduation in the spring, LR produces quality activities on campus. The students always look forward to second semester's Spring Fling. Every LR student remembers their first day of Prologue. These events shape our school, the good times had and good friends made at all of these events are the memories you will hold dear to you forever, they are a lot of what you will remember about LR when you are gone. The 1999-2000 HACAWA is proud to present to you the events of the 1999-2000 academic year, to help you remember all the good times you had.

The Pep Band takes out time to come and perform in the parade, for all of the community.

Graduation 1999

The 1999 graduating class was brought together on Saturday May 15, 1999. They were all eager to grab those diplomas and waited patiently for them. The speaker was Dr. James Black, the N.C. Speaker of the House. Joe Cavelli, Senior Class President, also spoke to the graduating class. It was a long-awaited moment and they have now gone into another horizon of their lives.

The senior class as they get ready to receive their long awaited diplomas.

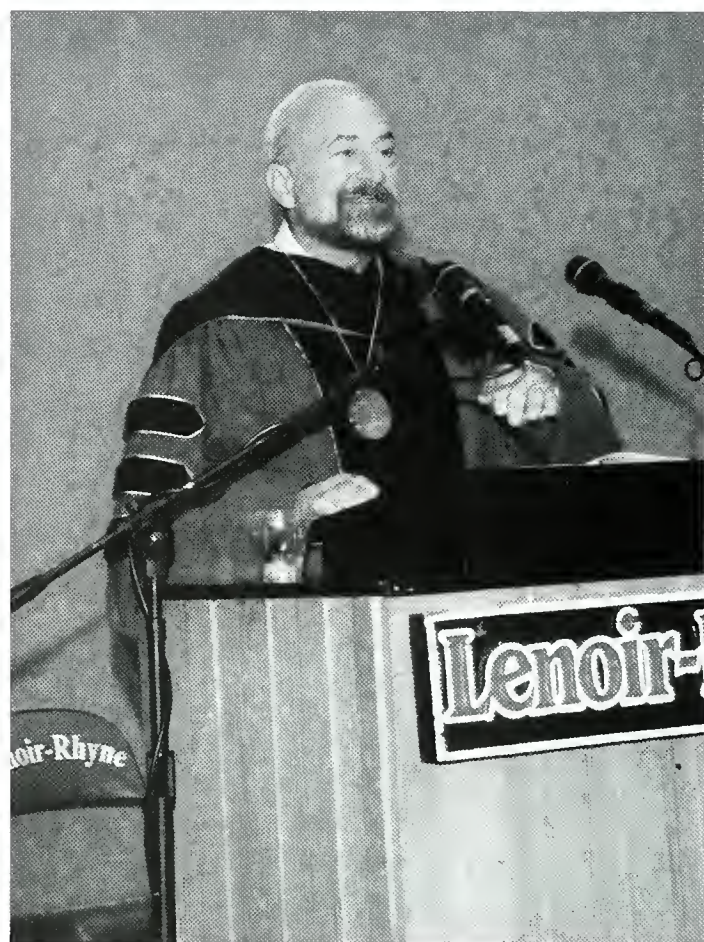

Dr. William Shuford, the college marshal and a Professor Emeritus brings everyone to their seats as his last walk through Lenoir-Rhyne's Graduation ceremonies.

President LaHurd speaks to the graduating class as they are beginning a new journey into life and leaving Lenoir-Rhyne behind.

Pastor Weisner says a quick prayer to start the ceremonies off on the right track.

Lenoir-Rhyne was lucky to receive Dr. James Black the N.C. Speaker of the House to speak to the graduating class.

1999 Comencement Exercises

Joe Cavelli, Senior Class President, speaks to his fellows classmates about the future and the new horizon they are about to embark on.

Prologue '99

Prologue is a part of every freshman's life. Just as change is a part of everyday life. So the class of 2003 was introduced through change, and prologue saw new ideas put into motion. Incoming freshmen were introduced to a co-ed Morgan and Isenhour, Playfair, and Community Service. The class of 2003 was welcomed and so was the beginning of a new century.

It is a a great time to meet a lot of new people and join in with all the festivities of LRC.

- Terry Donaher

Jack Hager and Sara Blackorby test out the new freshman's cheerleading abilities by creating a human pyramid.

Remember that PLAYfair thing. On the count of three every one please slowly sit down. Can I get a standing ovation?

Mr. Shirlen holds in his hand an official L-R Bear. Can we start the bidding at twenty-five dollars? All checks made payable to Mr. Lovell.

class of 2003

Beautiful Morgan Hall during its summer facelift. Now even the freshmen can live in comfort with air conditioning and new beds!

Jenn Hart, please tell me that my room isn't on that hall right there! Good Old freshman check-in.

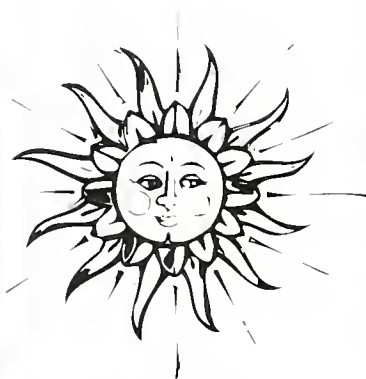

Beach Party

Above: Fun in the sun as Terry Donaher chills with Anne Monroe, Leigh Chandler, Brandy Cruse, Laura Coker and Becky Malec.

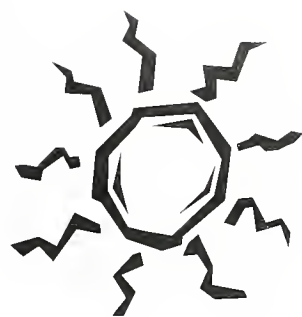

Left: Phil Mancini tests the wonderful elephant floatation device. Please don't try this at home.

Welcome Dr. LaHurd to the L-R Beach Party. As Autumn Edsall asked about possible funding for an actual beach front two story condo.

Community Service

Hands on Hickory Prologue '99

Andrew Troutman and his fellow prologue partners help to clean up L. P. Frans Stadium which is the home to our Hickory Crawdads Single - A baseball team.

CLASS OF 2003

Group number 2 picks some weeds at Glenn Hilton Park. Which ones are weeds?

Prologue not only gave me a chance to meet and teach the freshman, but it allowed me to get to know my fellow prologue leaders better. It also allowed me to go out into the community and help out.

-Jack Hager

The 1999 Prologue schedule included something very new this year. Giving back to the Hickory community has always been a part of Lenoir-Rhyne College and this includes a lot of community service. This year with the help of Dr. Ryan LaHurd, Mark Vest, and the city of Hickory freshmen had a chance to experience a part of an almost-forgotten piece of L-R History. All Prologue groups went out and gave a hand all over Hickory.

A group at the Habitat for Humanity site works hard, while Sweetfeet supervises. Good job guys, keep it up!

At the local Unique Gifts shop, Joey helps to tear down the wall for the owners.

Another Prologue group adds mulch to a local playground so Hickory Kids can play safely.

The Kappa Delta's showed no mercy toward the incoming year 2000!

Homecoming 1999

*Lenoir-Rhyne College celebrated this years
Homecoming with a Bon Voyage to 1999!*

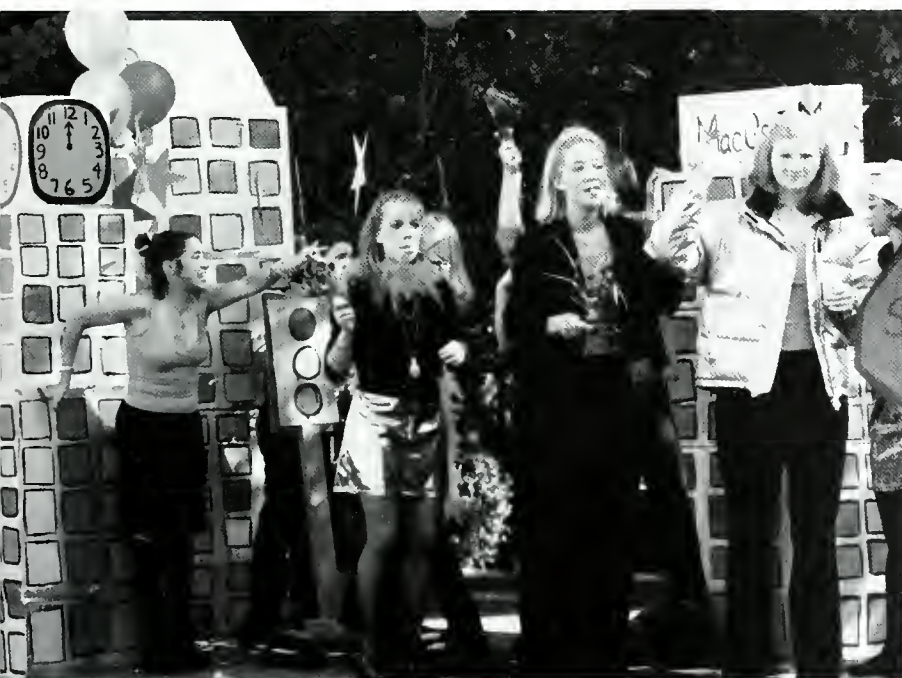

The Homecoming Court surely is pretty, you kept hearing as the parade went on!

The Theta Xi's spent all night out on this one!

Look it's the animals from Noah's Ark. Do you remember that story?

Chad Beam and Safiaya Smith get caught by the camera before the parade started.

The Delta Zeta's partied all day long on their float waiting for 2000!

The 1999 Homecoming King Mr. Mike DiStefano

The King stops to take a pose with Aage Lindstad, 1st runner-up for Kappa Delta and 2nd runner-up Josh Eudy for Zeta Tau Alpha.

Chad Beam takes a minute to congratulate the new Homecoming King, Mike Distefano.

The 1999 Homecoming Queen Ms. Gretchen Ferris

Gretchen Ferris, sponsored by Sigma Kappa, is presented the crown for the year.

Shele Kelly, escorted by her father, gained 1st runner-up for the Kappa Delta Sorority.

The Zeta's have fun handing out leis to the crowd.

Amber and her nephew, Seth, enjoy the ride through LRC, getting ready for 2000!

The Theta Chi's know how to party down on their float, did you hear that music they were playing????

2000

Who is ready for 2000? Lenoir-Rhyne is, don't you think?

Bon Voyage 1999

The D.Z.'s took another approach about 2000, they decided to crash into it.

Anne Monroe is ready to step into the Danger Zone!!!

B.S.A. is not scared to go into the year 2000 with a bang! They know what they are all about.

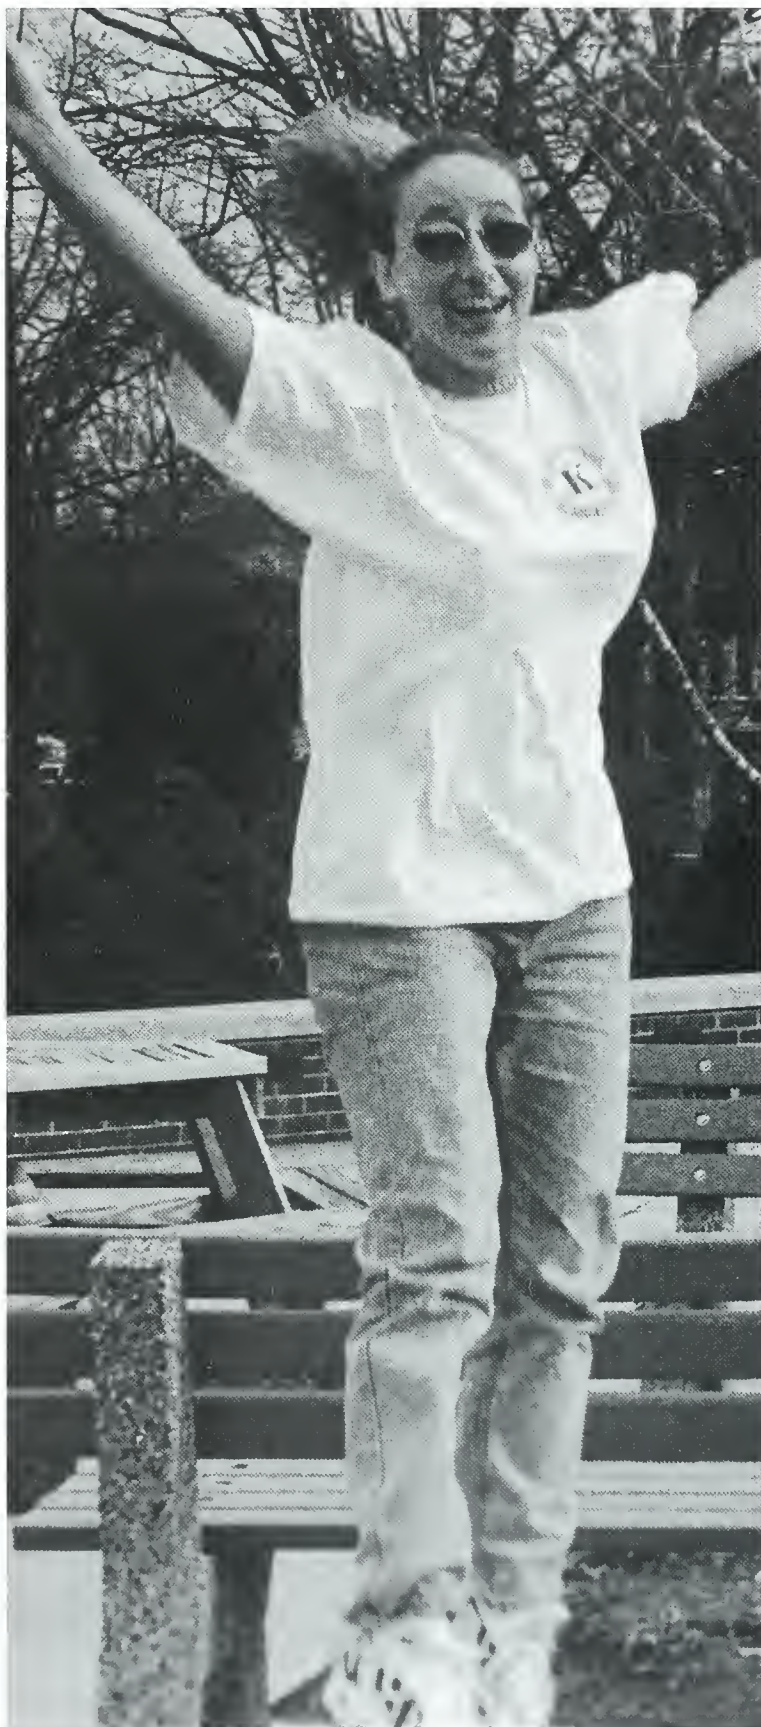

Well I believe the picture to your right says it all. I am very happy that you now have the 1999-2000 HACAWA in your hands. I just want to say how much of a pleasure it has been being able to put together the HACAWA for two years. I had a lot of bad days and then came the good days, but as the days went by I truly enjoyed putting this book together for you. With the help of my small staff we got through it and I am very pleased. I need to thank several people. I would like to begin with Chad Beam, you always seemed to be able to help during the worst times. I am truly going to miss you in the office, not only as a staff member, but also as a friend. Next, Lee Baldonado, you have done it again and given the Greek section a revision. It is great. Thanks for putting all you can into this publication. I will miss you when you are gone. Colleen Anderson, you take great pictures and I wish you could have helped more in the office. I wish you all the luck in the future. To Kristi Pfaffendorf, what can I say, the Meet-A-Bear section would not have been done without you. Thanks for everything. Professor Dick Hull and Dr. Gebhard, thanks for being great advisors you both did an excellent job and I know you will do well in the future. To Wes Stinchcomb, thanks for showing me the ropes before you left, I truly can say I did this one on my own. Now to my roommate, TeShondra Abner, without you there to listen to me gripe and complain I really do not know what I would have done. Thanks for being there when I needed you just to sit in the office with me. I Love Ya! To my parents, thanks for sticking behind me and allowing me to pursue my dreams. I would also like to thank Dean Anita for always allowing a listening ear and giving me free reign over this publication. To the person who succeeds me, good luck, I know that you will be willing to take the time to make this the best and if you ever have any questions please ask.

To the student body, thanks for allowing me to put together the HACAWA for you. I truly enjoyed the time I had with it and I hope that you are as easy to work with for whoever takes it over. I greatly appreciate your cooperation and input on the HACAWA. I hope you enjoy this year as well as you liked last years.

Thank You Everyone!
Amber Ervin

Arts For A New Horizon

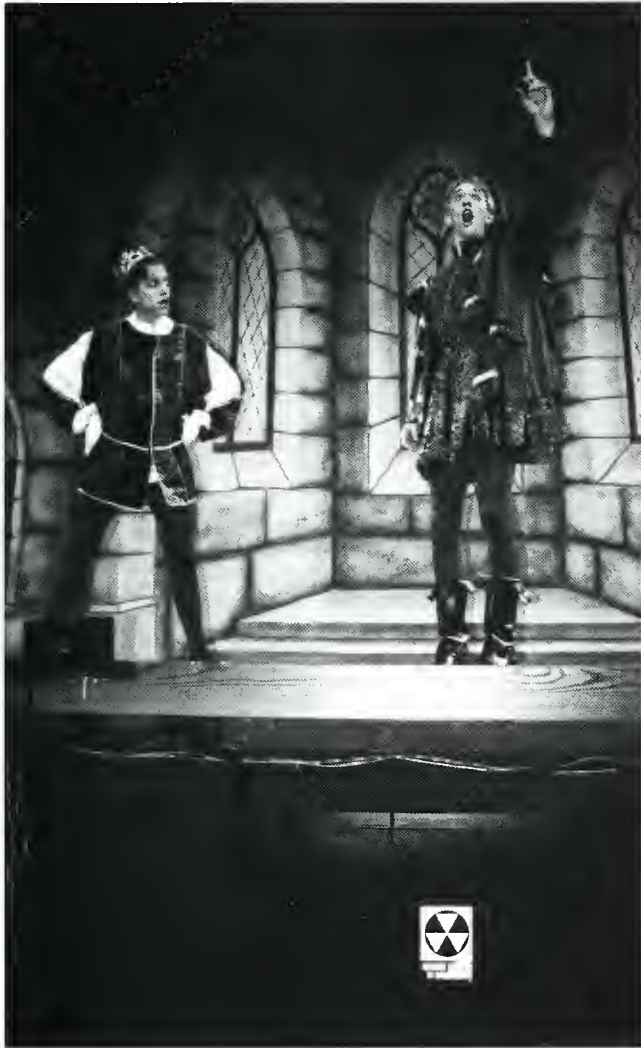

The Lenoir-Rhyne College Arts entertain and educate our campus. The plays put on by Playmakers help us to view a dramatic side of our student population. Depicting drama as well as comedy these plays help us to learn more about ourselves. The musical aspect of our campus is always on display at the home football games, always cheerful, always upbeat, and always quality. From the chorus to the Lenoir-Rhynean, these arts help us to look at life a little differently. The 1999-2000 HACAWA is proud to present the artistic side of Lenoir-Rhyne College.

Lenoir-Rhyne's first musical in 18 years

"Once Upon A Mattress"

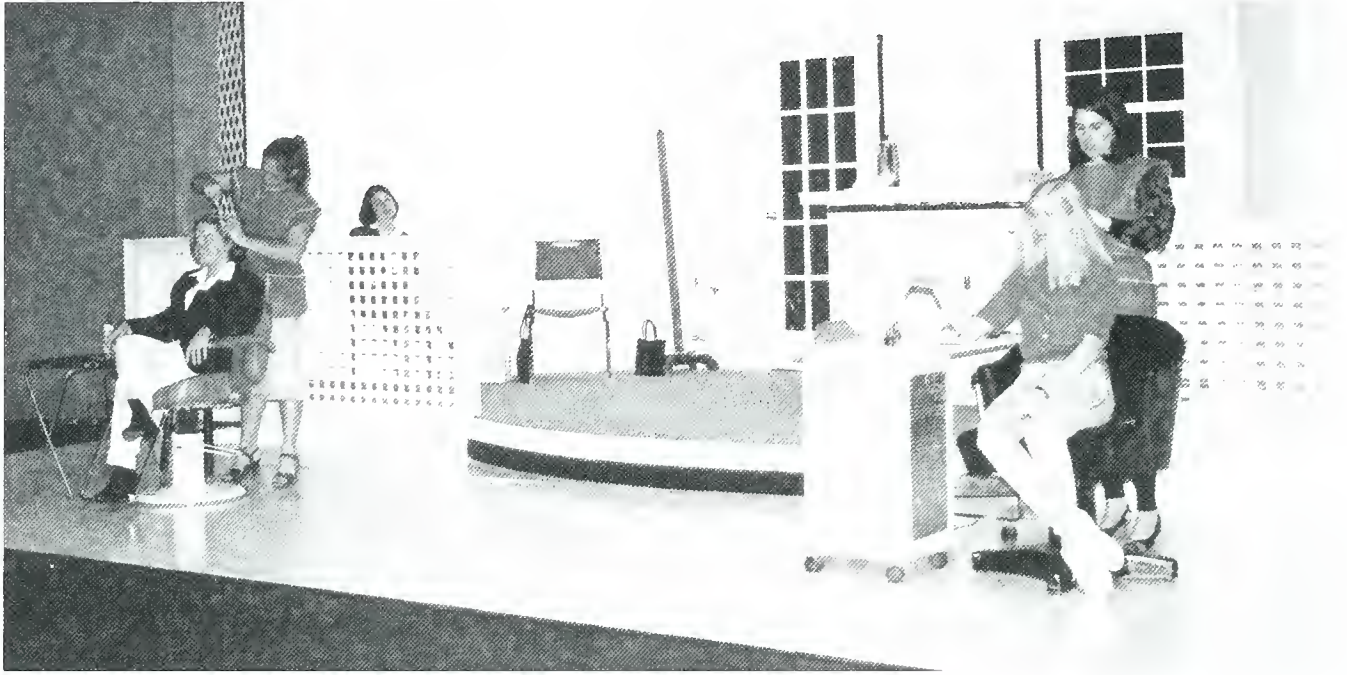

"Once Upon a Mattress," Lenoir-Rhyne's first musical since 1982. The musical was composed of only L-R students and faculty. They had a 17-piece orchestra, as well as the actors and actresses. This musical is based upon a Hans Christian Anderson tale, "The Princess and the Pea." The musical was performed February 17-19, 2000 in P.E. Monroe Auditorium. The production took lots of efforts from all faculty and students involved. It was a wonderful thing here on Lenoir-Rhyne's campus.

Steel Magnolias

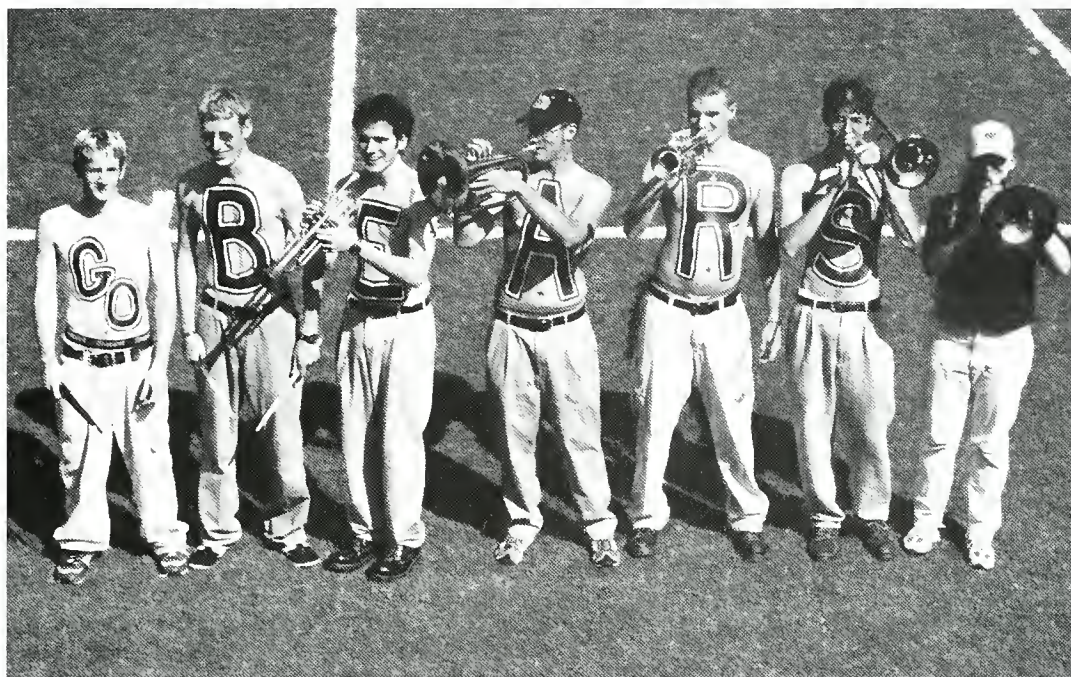

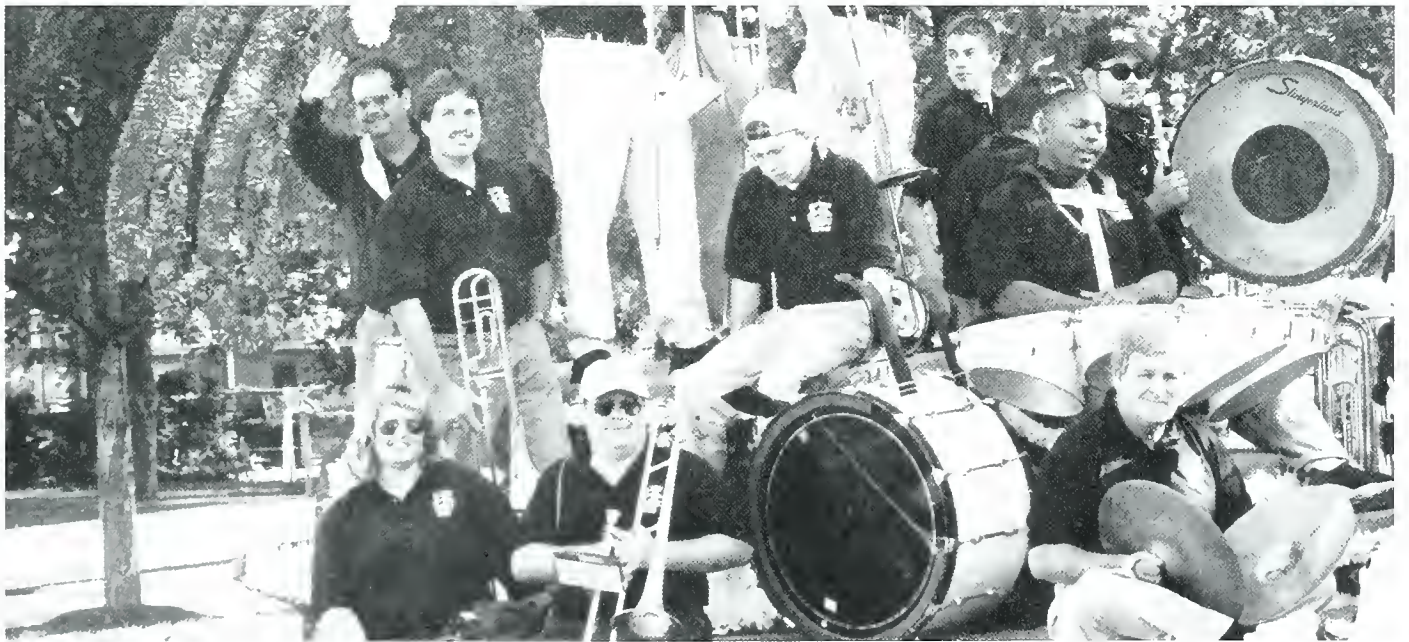

Steel Magnolias, a production made after the famous movie, was acted out in the beauty shop. The cast did a great job to portray the laughter and tears. Many people put a lot of time and effort into the production and displayed the characters beautifully.

A New Horizon In Sports

Cory Morgan competes to get to the ball before his opponent.

The college's intercollegiate teams compete in Division II of the NCAA and in the South Atlantic Conference (SAC), one of the toughest conferences in Division II sports. The college prides itself on developing strong athletes as well as well rounded people. These athletes represent your school away from campus as well as in the community. They base themselves on hard-work and dedication. They promote school unity through gathering at the rowdy soccer games, the full football stadium, and the main gym; so packed students can be seen wearing shorts in the middle of winter. The 2000 HACAWA is pleased to present to you your athletic teams of the 1999-2000 academic year.

Academic For A New Horizon

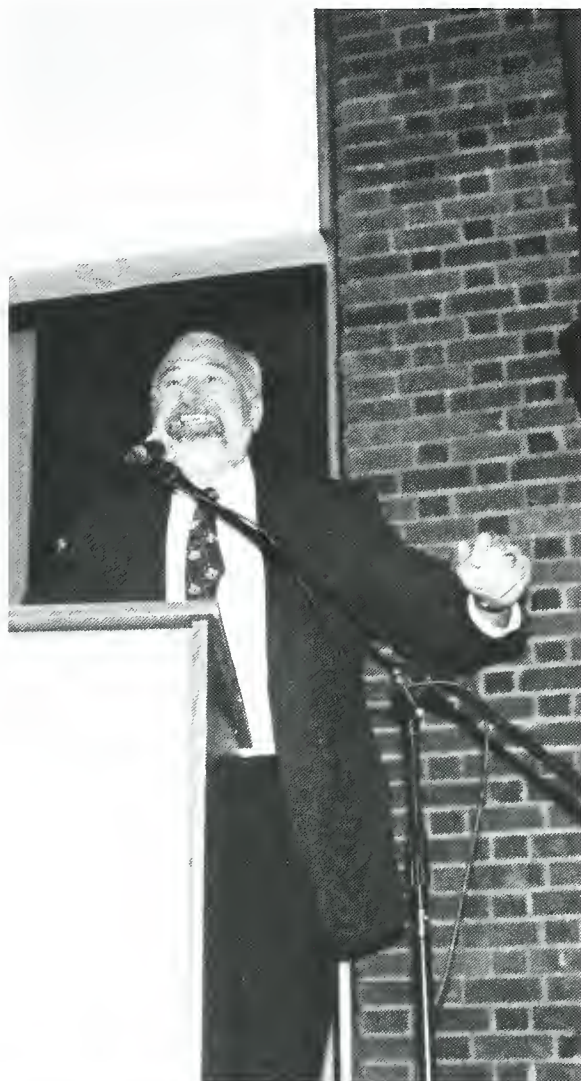

Dr. J goes out supporting her team while taking pictures for her scrapbook.

Lenoir-Rhyne's excellent academic reputation is based heavily on its faculty and staff; the people at the college that make students want to learn. It's the teacher that can pull the biggest party animal out of bed for an eight o'clock class and capture their attention for the entire time. It's the teacher who makes that subject you kind of like turn into your major. It's the teacher you feel you would let down if you did not give everything but your best. For all these reasons and more, the 1999-2000 HACAWA is pleased to bring you the people who epitomize academics and make them possible.

Donegan uses his acting ability in "Win Ryan LaHurd's Money."

President Ryan LaHurd

Dr. Ryan LaHurd came to Lenoir-Rhyne in 1994 as the college's 10th president. He previously served as vice president for academic affairs and dean of the college at Augsburg College in Minneapolis since 1985. Prior to that appointment, he was associate professor of English and chair of the department at Thiel College, Greenville, PA., from 1977 to 1985, and assistant professor of English and Chair of the department at Allentown College, in Center Valley from 1973 to 1977. He has also completed post-doctoral study at Rennselaer Polytechnic Institute for Educational Management at Harvard University.

He has been a frequent speaker and writer on issues related to politics, history, and culture of the Middle East and has received three Fulbright Fellowships, including one in Syria. He is a Rotarian and is a member of the Board of Division for Higher Education and schools for the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. He has also served as president of the Association of Lutherans of Arab and Middle Eastern Heritage of the ELCA. He is a Director of the Lutheran Theological Seminary in Gettysburg, PA., and a publication editor of the Study Commission on Issues of Peace and War for the Lutheran Church in America.

He is married to Dr. Carol Schersten LaHurd, a theology professor, and is the father of two children. His interests include biking, running, skiing, and gourmet cooking.

Lenoir-Rhyne College Organizations

Lenoir-Rhyne College offers students the chance to explore their different interests and test their imagination with the many different clubs and organizations found on campus. The artistic student can explore theatrical arts or visual arts through clubs and media organization. The religious student can better understand their faith through many of the religious organizations and denominations represented on campus. There are organizations which provide entertainment for the campus and organizations that seek to educate campus. From history, to business, to human rights, Lenoir-Rhyne College gives all registered students an opportunity to become a part of the campus on a whole new level. The 1999-2000 HACAWA is proud to present these organizations to you with a brief description of the goals, purpose and activities of each.

Organizations of a New Horizon

WLRC is a student run, non-commercial college radio station which can be reached at 89.7 Cable FM, between the hours of four PM and twelve midnight. WLRC offers a wide variety of programming formats for everyone. On any given day, one can expect to hear anything from hip-hop to punk-rock.

Amnesty International is a campus-community-volunteer organization and provides educational programs for the local community about human rights concerns and violations at home and abroad. Amnesty members hold monthly meetings, provide speakers for local clubs, schools, and other organizations. They hope to raise consciousness about the plights of so many in the world today who may have been imprisoned because of political reasons whose beliefs or color or sexual orientation were disapproved of by the government.

The Interfaith Council provides unity among all of our religious organizations on campus and also to provide fellowship, support, and spiritual growth for the religious organizations.

The Dance Company is a student-run organization which prepares for two performances each year. They work with a variety of styles including, jazz, lyrical, modern, tap, and ballet.

The Campus Activity Board (CAB) provides entertaining and educational programming as well as offering leadership opportunities to a diverse campus. It enhances and enriches the academic curriculum and provides a social outlet to promote unity among students, faculty, staff, and friends of the college.

The Sign Troupe is a performing musical group which consists of deaf hearing students. The primary purpose of Sign Troupe is to encourage social interaction between deaf and hearing students. To promote deaf awareness on campus and in the community through sign language and to provide entertainment through music and choreography.

Student North Carolina Association of Educators (SNCAE) is an organization which helps promote education to all education majors. It provides insurance for all student teachers and helps the student teachers prepare for their new classroom.

The International Television Association is a non-profit membership organization whose purpose is to recognize video communications as a specialized field of endeavor and to promote professionalism among the practitioners in the field.

The Lenoir-Rhynean is a student published newspaper which is published weekly during the academic year. The paper touches on issues on-campus as well as issues in the world today.

The Society of Professional Journalists is a national organization which promotes and defends the freedom of speech and the freedom of the press. By participating in on-campus activities and attending regional conferences, students learn about the role of journalism in a free society and the career options available to journalists.

The Literary Society exists to provide opportunities for the presentation and discussion of topics related to literature and language and to stimulate the interest and appreciation for such on the campus on Lenoir-Rhyne.

Kappa Delta Pi is a newly founded organization which promotes the highest scholars in the Education department at Lenoir-Rhyne. It was founded on campus in 1999.

Organizations of a New Horizon

The International Club seeks to build better relationships and enhance friendships between American and International students, offer opportunities for cross-cultural experiences, and build tolerance for differences through cultural and social exchanges.

Habitat for Humanity, started on Lenoir-Rhyne's campus September, 1997, works closely with the Catawba Valley HFH helping to build houses for less fortunate people. There has been lots of growth within this organization since its founding and it just gets better and better.

Fools For Christ is an organization open to anyone who wants to use their dramatic ability to bring the love and joy of Christ to the Lenoir-Rhyne community and surrounding areas. The group meets regularly to develop skits that are then performed for many churches and organizations throughout the community.

The mission of HANDS is to promote social interaction between hearing impaired students and hearing students and to encourage deaf awareness on and off campus. Membership in HANDS is open to all LRC students.

The Newman Club is a Catholic-sponsored organization formed to serve, communicate, and educate our youth in Catholic awareness, fellowship, support, and spiritual growth. Students of all different denominations are welcome to join.

Circle K is a service organization that provides opportunities to students for service projects, volunteer work, and educational experiences. It emphasizes work with children and the idea that everyone has the ability to make a difference in the community.

The American Student Committee of the Occupational Therapy Association strives to generate an interest, increase community awareness, and facilitate a better understanding within the campus environment of the occupational therapist's roles. ASCOTA also is committed to educating the campus and the student body about individuals with disabilities through demonstrations.

The Residence Advisors of LR live in the residence halls to ensure the safety of the students under their care. RA's also inform students of upcoming events on campus and are required to have hall activities so that students will get to know other students they live with. RA's have required duty time as well as weekly meetings.

Phi Beta Lambda is a business organization is designed to develop competent, aggressive leaders and strengthen the confidence of young women and men in themselves and their work in the fields of Business Administration and Education. It also increases interest and understanding in the intelligent choice of the business occupation.

The Model United Nations Organization is a campus group with the declared objective of enhancing understanding of and support for the peaceful and collective resolution of conflict; the collective resolution of problems through cooperation; the advancement of human rights for all peoples; and the instructional structures and organizations that exist to achieve the above. The Model UN participates in a regional and a national simulation each year.

The mission of BSA is to represent Lenoir-Rhyne College through the eyes of all the minorities on campus. The goal of this organization is to build a bond among minority students and then the campus as a whole.

Lenoir-Rhyne welcomes its new freshmen to campus through Prologue, a two-day program held the weekend before classes begin. Prologue helps new students learn more about the L-R campus and community and provides them with the tools necessary to make a successful transition from high school to college. Coordinated through the Office of Student Life, Prologue is largely developed and run by current Lenoir-Rhyne students.

Organizations of a New Horizon

Alpha Psi Omega is a national honorary society that honors hard work and dedication in collegiate theater. The Gamma Eta cast has been at Lenoir-Rhyne College for over sixty years.

Broyhill Mentors is a chance for the sophomore class to show who they are by participating with a faculty or staff member and doing projects for the community. This is a great opportunity to show the campus who you are.

Lenoir-Rhyne Playmakers is an organization designed to stimulate interest in the dramatic arts and to provide practical experience in theatre. Playmakers is involved in the presentation of several on-campus theatrical productions each year. Any member of the student body is eligible for membership

The North Carolina Student Legislature is a non-partisan organization that provides an opportunity for students to assemble as school representatives and, through the learning experience of a legislative process, appreciate the responsibilities of leadership.

The purpose of this organization is to develop an interest among students in the German language and culture. All students who are properly registered as Lenoir-Rhyne students may be members.

A New

Horizon

The Outdoor Adventure Club established this year allows students to go out and hike, camp, ski, or rafting, among many other things. It allows the students to explore and take adventures.

The Honeybears is a group of women that help the football team to show recruits around and support their fellow Bears. They make signs and give the team goodie bags to help them get ready for the game.

The MBA Association is an organization whose primary purpose is to promote professional growth and serve as a communication network between the administration, faculty, alumni, and students.

Student Government Association

The Student Government Association (SGA) works for, with, and on behalf of the student body of Lenoir-Rhyne College. Through elected or appointed students it is involved in virtually every aspect of the campus from governance to activities. Any person enrolled as a student is a member of the Association and, thereby, has a right to take part in the programs and activities of the Association both as leader and participant.

The Student Government Association functions within the guidelines established by its Constitution and By-Laws. It also has developed a Guide to Judicial Procedures to assist the various LRC judicial units as they expedite their responsibilities and to delineate clearly to the campus community the appropriate procedures for reviewing and adjudicating misconduct charges. The SGA has also developed a set of guidelines for Student Elections and a set of By-Laws to be used by each Residence Area Council.

A New Horizon

LENOIR-RHYNE

Greeks on the Horizon

The Pi Kappa Phi Fraternity enjoyed the float and all the whistles they got from the crowd.

The Greek organizations on campus enjoy the competition and great motivation that you achieve from a greek organization. Along with just the sisterhood and brotherhood they all enjoy working with their individual philanthropies and helping out in the community. Some philanthropies are Prevention of Child Abuse, PUSH America, and Breast Cancer Awareness. The 1999-2000 HACAWA is proud to present to you the Greek Organizations of Lenoir-Rhyne, the social drive of the campus.

The Theta Xi's gladly accepted the fraternity of the year for 1999.

The Kappa Delta float had it going on with all their hard work put into it.

Panhellenic Council

Anita Johnson-Quinn, Amber Farling, Lisa Gonzalez, Linda Anstee, Shannon Norris, Barbara Gilpin, and Kristie Pfaffendorf

Interfraternity Senate

Stephen Priestly, Jason Call, David Yoder, Tim Baird, Phil Carlino, Terry Donaher, Cory Stirewalt, Jeff Wright

The Panhellenic Council

The Panhellenic Council exists to maintain a high standard fraternity life and interfraternity relations within our college, to further fine intellectual accomplishment and sound scholarship, assist the college in the maintenance of high social standards and compile rules governing rush, pledging and initiation practices of female fraternity/sorority Greek social clubs. They also sponsor individual and group service and initiate other worthwhile campus activities. The council consists of two delegates from each sorority on L-R's campus which include Delta Zeta, Kappa Delta, Sigma Kappa, and Zeta Tau Alpha.

The Interfraternity Senate

The Interfraternity Senate (IFS) is the governing body of the four nationally-affiliated fraternities on campus. They are Theta Chi, Pi Kappa Phi, Tau Kappa Epsilon, and Theta Xi. The Senate was established for the perpetuation of understanding and good fellowship among the fraternities on L-R's campus. It was also established for the purpose of hearing evidence concerning infractions of those stipulations approved by the senate.

PUTTING THE PIECES TOGETHER

Kappa Delta's history is favored with love, laughter, sisterhood and friendship. The Kappa Delta Sorority founders aimed to establish an organization which would foster life-long friendships among college women. Held by the strong bonds of love and mutual respect, the KD sisterhood enriches each woman in a different way. Each woman contributes her own special talents to make the Kappa Delta circle complete. The Gamma Chi chapter of Kappa Delta was founded on the campus of Lenoir-Rhyne on February 4, 1962. The KD's replaced The Philia Sorority (a local sorority) which was founded in 1948. The Philia's started with nine girls whose motto was "Our Watchword is Friendliness". They were formed to promote friendship and fellowship on campus. Now the KD's are thirty-six members strong and still promoting friendship.

Delta Zeta is the largest international sorority with chapters in the US and Canada. Six women at Miami University of Ohio founded Delta Zeta. They strived to meet the goals of academic achievement, community involvement and sisterhood. Delta Zeta values the unique and varied talents of each new member, and are glad to do all they can to make a second home for every sister. The Zeta Xi chapter of Delta Zeta was founded at Lenoir - Rhyne on May 13, 1961. They replaced the local sorority called the Sphinx. The Sphinx was the first women's social organization on campus and they were organized between 1944-1945. Their colors were black and white and of course their symbol was the Sphinx. They were organized in order to promote friendship among students and to better L-R by being active leaders and workers on campus. Of course they later became the Delta Zeta Sorority of Lenoir Rhyne College. The DZ's colors are rose and green and their flower is the Killarney rose.

Pi Kappa Phi is an organization built on the love and dedication of tens of thousands of men who, since 1904, have found brotherhood through the pursuit of scholarship, leadership, service and social experiences. "A house, a grip, a badge, a song, an emblem - these do not make a fraternity. It is the unseen things - our friendship, brotherhood, character, honor, courage, and ideals- these make the fraternity and the man." - L. Harry Mixon. The Epsilon Rho chapter of Pi Kappa Phi was founded at Lenoir-Rhyne on December 3, 1983. They replaced the Theta Chapter of Sigma Phi Epsilon who were the "Brothers of the Golden Heart". Sigma Phi Epsilon was originally known as the Rho Sigma fraternity which was founded in the spring of 1953. Pi Kappa Phi is the youngest and fastest growing fraternity in the nation. Their colors are gold and white with dark blue and their motto is "nothing shall ever tear us asunder".

Theta Xi endeavors to assist each member to develop: intellectual curiosity that assures the highest scholarship rating consistent with his ability; habits that lead to better mental/physical health; sincerity in his association with others and confidence in himself; responsibility to the chapter, college, community and country; leadership in regular scholastic studies, and spiritual understanding that provides a reservoir of strength. The Kappa Omicron chapter of Theta Xi was originally Kappa Sigma Kappa. Kappa Sigma Kappa was organized in April of 1950 and had nine charter members. It was the first national fraternity to grace L-R. The chapter of Kappa Sigma Kappa changed over to Theta Xi in 1963 and started out with ten members. The Xi's colors are blue and white and their flower is the blue Iris. The symbol of Theta Xi is the Unicorn.

Fraternity of the Year 1999

Theta Xi

The Theta Xi fraternity was founded in Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute at Troy, North Carolina on April 29, 1841. The Theta Xi's have two philanthropies which are National Multiple Sclerosis Society and Habitat for Humanity. The Xi's have an Annual MS Walk in Gastonia where 10% of the money raised goes to the National Society and the rest into the community. The Theta Xi's have also begun working with Habitat to ensure the community is getting what they need. Once again, congratulations!

The sisters of Sigma Kappa were founded in Waterville Maine at Colby College. They strive for One Heart, One Way. The Sigma Kappa's have many different philanthropies including Alzheimer's Disease and research and programs directed at improving the lives of older citizens. They raise money during their annual Week of Giving where they sell lollipops, have a rock-a-thon, and visit residents at the nursing homes. The Sigma Kappa's have the highest G.P.A. of all sororities and are involved in many activities. Once again, Congratulations!

Meet Bear

The 1998 - 1999 HACAWA is pleased to present to you twenty-two members of your student body, with brief sketches describing why they came to Lenoir - Rhyne College and what the college means to them. These twenty-two people represent a cross-section of areas from which Lenoir - Rhyne draws students. This section represents the closeness of the LR community and the fact that everyone here is given the right to be heard.
